Personally identifiable information (PII) processed on some system components, applications, and documents might utilize specific administrative, physical, and technical security controls to protect PII confidentiality and which may be addressed in separate privacy impact assessments (PIAs). Such PIAs are available at: <https://dodcio.defense.gov/In-the-News/Privacy-Impact-Assessments.aspx/>.

Personally Identifiable Information (PII) may be collected, maintained, processed, or disseminated by systems and applications within the enclave or documents stored on file servers and shared drives. PII may include numerous types of PII including employee and beneficiary contact information, military information, demographic information, Social Security Number (SSN), and Protected Health Information (PHI). Commercial-Off-The-Shelf (COTS) applications such as Microsoft Word Excel, PowerPoint, and Outlook are utilized to provide administrative support to the enclave and may process PII.

The 325th MDG Tyndall AFB_MEDCOI is owned by DHA and operated by Tyndall.

(1) If "Yes," describe the method by which individuals can object to the collection of PII.

(2) If "No," state the reason why individuals cannot object to the collection of PII.

The opportunity for individuals to object to the collection of Personally Identifiable Information (PII) is specific to the method used to collect PII in the respective system component and is addressed in the sub-system's Privacy Impact Assessment (PIA).

f. Do individuals have the opportunity to consent to the specific uses of their PII?  Yes  No

(1) If "Yes," describe the method by which individuals can give or withhold their consent.

(2) If "No," state the reason why individuals cannot give or withhold their consent.

The opportunity for individuals to consent to uses of Personally Identifiable Information (PII) is specific to the method used by the respective system component and is addressed in the respective sub-system's Privacy Impact Assessment (PIA).

g. When an individual is asked to provide PII, a Privacy Act Statement (PAS) and/or a Privacy Advisory must be provided. (Check as appropriate and provide the actual wording.)

- Privacy Act Statement
- Privacy Advisory
- Not Applicable

The enclave infrastructure does not collect Personally Identifiable Information (PII) directly from individuals; however, system components, applications, and electronic collections within the enclave might collect PII. Refer to the respective system component, application, or electronic collection Privacy Impact Assessment (PIA) for additional information.
